By the Associated Press.
WITH THE BRITISH ARMIES IN FLANDERS, Oct. 2.—Field Marshal
Haig's forces today captured Rolleghemcapelle and advanced for a distance of 3000 yards southeast of Roulers.

By the Associated Press.
PARIS, via Montreal, Oct. 2 (Reuters).—The allied enveloping movement against Turcoing, Roubaix and Lille in Flanders is becoming accelerated, according to a semi-official announcement made here today.

The French army, under Gen. De-goutte, now operating in the vicinity of Roulers, apparently was sent north from its old position on the left of Gen. Mangin, after the break through of the Belgian and British forces was definitely established.

Fresh Progress in the Direction of Roulers.

By the Associated Press.
LONDON, Oct. 2.—French and Belgian troops have made fresh progress in the direction of Hooglede and Roulers, and the British have seized Leuvenhem, on the Roulers-Menin railway, according to the Belgian official statement issued last night. A British detachment, the statement says, has crossed the Lys between Werwijn and Comines.

Menin and Roulers, railway junctions in Flanders, have been set on fire by the Germans in face of the advancing Belgians, British and French troops. French guns now control the railway line running from Ostend, through Thourout and Roulers to Courtrai. British monitors are co-operating actively in bombarding the German lines on and near the coast.

The statement reads:
"On Oct. 1 the operations in Flanders under command of the King of Belgium developed favorably despite the resistance of the enemy. The energetic Belgian and French troops made new progress in the direction of Hooglede and Roulers. South of Roulers the British troops captured Ledeghem on the Roulers-Menin railway. British detachments crossed the Lys between Werwijn and Comines.

"British aerial squadrons bombarded Dierikwerf, causing a fire at the railway station. They also broke up several enemy convoys."

By the Associated Press.
PARIS, Oct. 2.—The Germans are moving their heavy artillery away from the Belgian coast, according to reports here today.

The Belgian army, co-operating with the British army of Gen. Plumer, and the French army of Gen.
Degoutte, successfully renewed their heavy attacks on the Flanders front.

BRITISH OCCUPY DAMASCUS AFTER 130-MILE ADVANCE

By the Associated Press.
LONDON, Oct. 2.—Damascus, the capital of Syria, was occupied by Gen. Allenby's forces on Tuesday morning, according to an official statement issued today by the British War Office.

Damascus is the Turkish base in Syria and Palestine. The ancient city is the junction point of railroads leading to the port of Beirut and Aden, 175 miles northeast.

Damascus is the capital of the Vilayet of Syria and has a population of about 160,000. It is one of the holy cities of the Mohammedans and the Arabs—said it as one of the four paradises of the earth.

The capture of Damascus marks an advance of 130 miles by Gen. Allenby's forces since Sept. 20, the day he launched his victorious attack
north of Jerusalem.

RUSSIAN RIFLES ON WAY HERE FOR USE BY HOME GUARD

Firearms Were Held Up When Bolsheviki Deserted Allies; Change in Drilling Necessary.

A full equipment of Russian rifles is to be issued to the First and Third Regiments of the Missouri Home Guard, according to announcements received by the regimental officers from the Adjutant-General's office.
The rifles are on the way, and some of them have arrived here. They will replace the police riot guns and the old-fashioned Springfield rifles with which the men have been drilling.

Because of the peculiarities of these guns, it is possible that a change in the drill regulations will be necessary. The Russian guns, it is said, cannot be carried at the position of right shoulder which is usual with other guns, and must be held so as to lie flat against the shoulder.

DETECTIVE GETS YOUTH AFTER WAITING ALL NIGHT IN AUTO

Car Stolen Downtown Found Abandoned by Sgt. Dineen in Alley Back of His Home.

Detective Sergeant George T. Dineen, 1830 Pennsylvania avenue, received a call from a woman who said that he found abandoned at 11:30 p.
m. in an alley at the rear of his home, and at 6:30 this morning arrested John Streib, 16 years old, of 4444 Oregon avenue, when the youth arrived on the scene and tried to start the car.

After eating breakfast Dineen took his prisoner to police headquarters.
There young Streib offered to guide him to the "home" of an accomplice. At Osage and Pennsylvania avenue the detective followed Streib into a vacant lot to a dugout in which they found Henry W. Weisber, 16, of 4113 California avenue.

Weisber admitted he had stolen
the machine, which belonged to John Horras, a piano dealer, from in front of the latter's store, Twelfth and Pine streets, at 5 p. m. yesterday.

He said he invited Streib to ride with him and drove until they had engine trouble. Weisber said he lived in the dugout all summer after running away from home. He declared he stole another car three weeks ago from Broadway and Olive, abandoning it when the gasoline gave out.

STIFEL TO CONVERT BREWERY INTO CIGARETTE PLANT

Otto F. Stifel, president of the Union Brewing Co., announced today that part of the brewery at Gravois and Michigan avenues is being converted into an oleomargarine factory and will be in operation within 60 days. It is the first St. Louis brewery to actually turn its facilities into another industrial plant.

About $110,000 worth of machinery and supplies have been contracted for, Stifel said, and the work of preparing the structures, formerly used for storage purposes, for the installation of this machinery has been started. Additional contracts for equipment and supplies will be let within a short time.

Brewing of beer will be continued until Dec. 1, when, under Government regulations, it automatically ceases. In the interval the output will be reduced. Curtailments have been made in several departments and a number of city salesmen have been dismissed.

CHANDLER RESIGNS AFTER REPRIMAND OVER HIS LETTER

Policeman's Side of Arrest of Fouke and Mansur Was Printed in Post-Dispatch
Yesterday.

CHIEF SUMMONED HIM TO OFFICE

Young Says Statements
Should Have Been Made to Superiors—Says Transfer Was to Give Him Experience.

Patrolman Joseph W. Chandler resigned from the Police Department this afternoon, after Chief Young had called him to his office and reprimanded him for writing the letter which was printed in the Post-Dispatch yesterday, in which Chandler defended his action in arresting Police Commissioner Fouke at Sixth and Olive streets Sept. 20, for violating the traffic ordinance, and disregarding the protest which was made at the time by President Mansur of the Police Board.

Chandler was transferred a week ago from the traffic squad to the Angela Street District, and Chief Young said that the transfer was made because Chandler had shown insubordination in failing to recognize the badge displayed by Mansur,
as President of the board.

Chandler submitted his resignation to Capt. Wilson of the Angela Street Station. He said the Chief did not ask him to resign, and Young also said he made no such request.

Transferred for Training.
The Chief said he had not heard from any member of the Police Board as to Chandler's letter, and that he summoned the policeman on his own initiative, and told him he should have made his statement to his superiors, instead of "rushing into print." The Chief said he told Chandler that his transfer to "the sticks" was for the purpose of giving him a more thorough training as a policeman, and that if he showed ability he might get back to the Central District.

Chandler, who came from Marble Hill, Mo., has been on the force five months, and was appointed under the recent suspension of the rule requiring three years' residence in the city before appointment to the force.

No Other Job He Says.

Chandler said he felt that he was being "hopped on" from all sides, and that as he believed he had done his duty, he thought best to make his explanation to the public through the columns of the Post-Dispatch.

"I have no other job in sight," he said. "I guess I can get one."

The Board of Aldermen last Friday passed a resolution censuring the Police Board for the transfer of Chandler. Chief Young said at that time that he acted on his own responsibility in making the transfer,
and was not directed by the board.

Commissioner Sheehan, in an interview, said that Chandler should not have made an arrest under the circumstances, as first violators of the parking ordinance are only warned, not arrested, and that Chandler should have recognized the badge shown by President Mansur, and should not have insisted on getting into the car with the commissioners to go to Police Headquarters.

Chandler said, in his letter to the Post-Dispatch, that he had no means of knowing whether Fouke was a first offender in the violation of the parking ordinance. He also said the Fouke car remained in one place five hours, instead of two hours, as had been stated. He said he tried to hand the Commissioners a summons to appear in Police Court, but that they ignored it, and that he believed it his duty to make an arrest. He said he might have been guilty of insubordination in refusing to recognize Mansur's badge, but he added that he never supposed a Police Commissioner had any more right to violate the law than anyone else.

Member of Concern in Re- ceivership Says He Is Forced From St. Regis Apartments to $30 Room.

Alexander Hanks Brown, senior member of Alex H. Brown & Co., a brokerage firm at 400 North Fourth street, which yesterday was forced into a receivership by creditor customers, today told a Post-Dispatch reporter that he is "broke." He attributed the financial downfall of the firm to his partner, Anthony J.
Schmidt, of 3001 Geyer avenue, who,
he said, sold steel and other American stock last June when the German drive on Paris caused him to believe that those stocks would go down.

Known since this trading, begun in June, was continued in July and August and was all done without his knowledge while he was at Wequeting, Mich., with his two small sons on a vacation.

Trading Not Secret, Attorney Says.
Nathan Frank, attorney for Schmidt, denied that there was anything surreptitious or secret about the trading done by Schmidt in Brown's name. He said Schmidt was "bearing" the market in the belief it would go down on account of the war news. Schmidt, at his home, refused to make a statement for publication.

Brown was formally suspended from the St. Louis Stock Exchange in the forenoon after J. H. Dieckman, president of the exchange, had announced the firm's insolvency.

Brown told a reporter he hired Schmidt as an office boy when he started in the brokerage business here 17 years ago and that after serving as bookkeeper, telephone operator and confidential clerk, Schmidt was made a partner in the firm, without making any investment in it, six years ago. Brown said he took Schmidt in as a partner in recognition of his "faithful service and honesty." Schmidt is 35 years old.

Obligations $450,000, Assets $300,000.
Brown confirmed statements made by attorneys yesterday that the firm's obligations to its customers amount to about $450,000 and that its assets are about $300,000. These "assets" in the main consist of property owned by customers who put it up as collateral to cover trades made through the brokerage firm. It is said by attorneys in the case to be unlikely that any of the firm's property will be left when the claims of customers are satisfied.

As an indication that he was "wiped out," Brown said he had turned over his own personal property for the benefit of the creditors and in the interest of economy had moved from the St. Regis Apartments, 4950 Lindell boulevard, to a room in the St. Louis Club annex, for which he pays $30 a month. He is living there with his sons, but says he cannot stand even that expense and is looking for cheaper quarters.

Named Schmidt Executor in Will.
Brown said that before going on his vacation in June he made a will in which he named Schmidt as executor, and that he was so fond of Schmidt that when Schmidt's only child, a girl, was born, he said to Schmidt: "That's fine. When your baby girl grows up one of my boys will marry her and they will be well fixed."

On his return from his vacation,
he said, he found that the firm's collateral, which had been kept in a safe-deposit box, had been depleted, and further inquiry showed that Schmidt had been "bearing the market," his trades being principally in steel stocks, with some speculation in cotton.

This inquiry, Brown said, had to be made through the New York correspondents of the firm, as he was unable to find a record of the trades on the company's books here.
He said he was told the trades had been made on Schmidt's order and that messages confirming the trades

The towns Beaurevoir and Ponsomme, about eight miles apart, between which points Field Marshal Haig seemingly has broken through, are indicated by arrows. The circled towns Nauvay and Gouy were captured by American units. The towns marked by single under-ing have been taken by the French. Towns marked by double underlining were taken by the British. The point of liaison between the two forces is in the immediate vicinity of St. Quentin.

SERBIA ANNOUNCES BULGARS ARE EVACUATING COUNTRY

By the Associated Press.
LONDON, Oct. 2.—Serbia is being evacuated by the Bulgarian troops, who are returning to Bulgarian territory, according to the Serbian official statement of Tuesday night.

When hostilities ended at noon
Monday, the Serbians held a line from Uklub eastward through the mountains to the Bulgarian border, near Charovo. Kumanovo, 15 miles northeast of Uklub, was entered by the Serbians Monday night. The official statement reads:

"About noon, at the moment of ceasing hostilities, we held the line from Obzina in the mountain region, to Malash to Terzi Kamen, to the north of Charovo, and the Bulgarian frontier between Shidriv and Strazina. In the evening we entered Kumanovo.

"The Bulgarian troops are returning to Bulgarian territory."

FRENCH ADVANCE ON A 10-MILE LINE

Gains Made Between the Aisne and the Vesle; Enemy Retreating Toward
Their 1917 Line.

By the Associated Press.
WITH THE BRITISH ARMY
IN FRANCE, Oct. 2, 10:30 a. m.
—British forces, breaking through the German line on the Beaurevoir-Wiancourt front and together with Sequehart, created a salient which aided materially in the capture of St. Quentin by the French.

By the Associated Press.
LONDON, Oct. 2, 1:30 p. m.—
Between Cambrai and St. Quantin the German line of defense has been broken. It is uncertain what lines the enemy has in the rear.

The British advance threatens the German line of retreat in the Oise Valley and also from the Massif of St. Gobain.

In view of the loss to the Germans of St. Quentin and the lines to the north of that city, an enemy retirement on a fairly large scale seems probable. Given fairly good weather some very big changes on the western front
may be seen before winter.

Wide gaps have been torn in the German line between St.
Quentin and Lecoate. Field Marshal Haig reported today the breaking of the line on the Fonsommes-Beaurevoir front.

(Beaurevoir is 2 1/2 miles east of Lecoate and Ponsomme is nearly five miles east of St. Quan-
tin. The distance between these points is about eight miles.)

Haig reported that the Australians had finished the work of clearing out the German defenses south of Le Catelet and Gouy and had freed Jus-court, just to the south, of enemy troops.

Sequehart, four and a half miles southeast of Bellicourt, has been captured, as has the hamlet of Presailles, just to the north.

South of Cambrai, British and Scottish troops, together with New Zealanders, have occupied Crove coeur and Rumilly.

The text of the statement reads:
"After maintaining strong pressure on the enemy throughout the earlier part of the day, in the afternoon the Thirty-second Division attacked the center of the German defensive line which runs from Ponsomme to the neighborhood of Beaurevoir. The attack was successful. The village of Sequehart and the hamlet of Presailles were captured and the Ponsomme-Beaurevoir line breached. North of this point Juscourt was cleared of the enemy and the Australians completed the capture of the enemy's defenses south of LeCatelet and Gouy.

"In the sector south of Cambrai a fierce struggle all day was terminated by a successful attack at dusk, as a

$12 FIXED AS TOP PRICE FOR MEN'S AND WOMEN'S SHOES

War Industries Board Announces
Three Classes of Footwear Ranging Down to $3.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Maximum and minimum retail prices for shoes as agreed to by dealers and manufacturers and ranging from $3 to $12 for men and women, were announced today by the War Industries Board.

Shoes are grouped in three classes
as follows: Class A, from $9 to $12;
Class B, $6 to $8.50; Class C, $3 to $5.50.

Proportionate prices will be fixed for youths' and children's footwear.
The cutting of shoes under this schedule begins Oct. 15, and time is allowed retailers to dispose of present stocks. The agreement was subscribed to by committees representing manufacturers, jobbers and retailers. Each retailer will be required to sign a pledge to be displayed in his store and failure to do so will mean cutting off of supplies.
To check up on the observance of the agreement, shoes in such class will be stamped with a class number.

90 HELD FOR DRAFT HEARING

Ninety suspected draft evaders are day as the result of a split by the police in the roundup yesterday. The majority are negroes.

result of which New Zealand and Anglo-Scottish troops drove the enemy from Creve Coeur and Romilly and established themselves on the high ground east and north of those villages.

"Several hundred prisoners were taken by us in these operations."

FRENCH BEYOND ST. QUENTIN; GAIN NEAR RHEIMS ALSO

By the Associated Press. PARIS, Oct. 2. 1 p. m.—Gen. Berthelot's army today is making good progress between the Vesle River and the Aisne Canal. The French troops have captured five or six villages and their advance at some points has reached a depth of from five to six kilometers.

PARIS, Oct. 2.—The French troops now have passed beyond St. Quentin. Northeast, east and southeast of the town, according to the Havas Agency, they hold a line running along the Somme from Tronquoy to Rouvroy and then along the St. Quentin-La Fere road to the River Oise, at Vendeuil.

Heavy fighting took place in St. Quentin last night. Resisting stubbornly, the Germans were driven back to the east bank of the canal, according to the French War Office statement today.

West and north of Rheims the French have made further important gains. The entire massif (ridge) of St. Thierry now is in French hands.

Northwest of Rheims the French have taken Pouillon and Thil and have reached the southern outskirts of Villers-Francaux. North of Rheims they have pressed forward to the outskirts of Betheny.

The armies of Generals Gouraud and Berthelot on the fronts east and west of Rheims continued to advance, the Germans appearing to be falling back more hurriedly than at any time since September 26.

There was no change in Champagne during the night.

St. Quentin Burning and Cambrai Mined.

By the Associated Press. PARIS, Oct. 2.—St. Quentin is burning at several points, according to Premier Clemenceau, who informed Marcel Hutin of the Echo de Paris today that French aviators have great difficulty in flying over the city because of the smoke rising from it. (The French report of last night reported the penetration by French troops into St. Quentin as far as the canal.)

Cambrai has been mined, but the British forces have fought around the town and thus have foiled the plans of the enemy. The Germans decided on Sept. 1 to burn Cambrai and forced the civilian population to leave.

AMERICANS IN CHAMPAGNE AGAIN MOVE FORWARD

By the Associated Press. WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, Tuesday, Oct. 1.—It was reported late tonight that the Americans on the front between the Meuse and the Argonne had again moved forward over one of the most hotly contested sectors of their advance, the ground north and west of Montfaucou.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY NORTHWEST OF VERDUN, Tuesday, Oct. 1.—The army tonight appears to be withdrawing on the American left. Broadly speaking, he is going in the direction of the junction of the Brunhild and Kriemhild systems.

In the Argonne forest Americans made progress today. East of the forest they are operating north of Clerges and hold positions on the road from Clerges to Exermont.

In this district there has been stiff fighting, local positions repeatedly changing hands until the Americans today established their supremacy. The excellent work of the American aerial force is demonstrated by a total bag since Sept. 26 of 100 hostile planes and 21 balloons.

German efforts to penetrate or bend the line between the Meuse and the Aisne dwindled rapidly today. With the clearing weather the engineers have converted the areas back of the American front into an orderly place once more. Roads that had been untouched for years and made worse by the movement of truck trains and artillery were once more made passable.

TEUTONS MASSING MEN TO HOLD BULGARIA

250,000 Germans and Austro-Hungarians Reported Sent From Rumania.

By the Associated Press. AMSTERDAM, Oct. 2.—The Turkish Cabinet, according to a telegram published by the Cologne Gazette, has decided "in all circumstances to adhere to the alliance with the Central Powers."

LONDON, Oct. 2.—Germany, it is reported, can be relied upon, is going to make a great effort to maintain communication over the Orient Railway with Turkey, and thus hopes to keep her Eastern ally in the war.

The military authorities are agreed that the allies must prepare for a new campaign in Serbia against the Austro-Hungarian and German forces, which number 150,000, including those in Albania. The German elements are chiefly concentrated in the neighborhood of Uskub, which French cavalry has entered, while the Austrians are expected to defend Nish, as well as the confluence of the western and southern Morava rivers and the great strategic points down to the Danube.

According to a Hage dispatch to the Central News, 250,000 German and Austro-Hungarian troops have arrived at Sofia from Rumania, and while part of those will remain in Sofia as an argument favoring the overthrow of the Malinoff Government, the majority will endeavor to keep the allied troops from the Orient Railway, which joins Germany and Austria with Constantinople, the capture of which was a few years ago hailed as the greatest achievement of the Central Powers.

Danger in Rumania.

The removal of troops from Rumania, however, is not without danger. A few weeks ago, when appealed to by his colleagues on the western front for assistance, Field Marshal von Mackensen reported that conditions in Rumania did not warrant the transfer of a single soldier. Rumanians are predicting that if the country does not rejoin the allies there will be at least a rising in that country which will completely nullify the Bucharest treaty so far as it provides for revictualizing the Central Powers.

German papers express suspicion of the Rumanian Crown Council held Sunday ostensibly for a discussion of the Crown Prince's marriage, but at which other matters might be discussed. The presence at this council of ex-Premier Bratianu, who is strongly for the allies, is strongly commented upon by the German press.

"Foreshadows End," London View.

The loss of the Bulgarians to the central alliance is regarded by the London morning papers as foreshadowing the end of the great four years' tragedy. The editorial writers for the most part are unable to see how Turkey can avoid following the Bulgarian lead, while some believe that Austro-Hungary must do the same.

For Germany it is held that the surrender spells ruin to her hopes in the Middle East and her aspirations of world empire.

"We have come to a solemn moment in this greatest of all wars and in the long process of civilization," says the Times. "It is no time for exultation, but we may recognize in this great event the first clear, unmistakable presage that the confederacy of our enemies is tottering to its fall. The entire surprise which Bulgaria's desertion is to the peoples of the Central Powers cannot fail to enhance the moral consequences of the shock."

The Daily Telegraph says: "It must bring the German rulers face to face with the unpleasant fact that the keystone has fallen out of the arch of pan-German designs, and should Turkey follow in the steps of Bulgaria the whole pan-German fabric falls to pieces like a house of cards."

"German Achilles Tendon Cut."

The Morning Post says: "The Germans have had their heaviest blow in the Near East since Frederick Barbarossa perished at the first attempt to establish a Berlin-Bagdad route. The allies have cut the Achilles tendon of the outstretched German foot."

The Daily News, which sees the whole German position in France startlingly near the point of dissolution as a result of recent military

RAIL LINKS MUST BE CUT TO ISOLATE TURKEY

Simonds Explains Effect Bulgaria's Fall Will Have on Situation in France.

By FRANK H. SIMONDS, Author of "The Great War."

On the military side the first objective as a consequence of Bulgaria's surrender must be the physical separation of Turkey and the Central Powers. This can be substantially realized only when allied troops have restored the Danube front between the Rumanian frontier and the Bosnian boundary. Communication between Berlin and Constantinople must be interrupted by cutting the Belgrade-Sofia link of the Berlin-Vienna-Constantinople railway and commanding the Danube River to the Iron Gates.

Bulgaria has surrendered and agreed to turn over her railways to the allies, but German and Austrian troops still control two vital links in the line from Germany and Austria to Turkey. D'Esperey and his armies must push northward from Uskub at once and seize Nish. When they have taken this town they will have cut the railway line vital to Teutonic-Turkish communications. This is the first step.

Recovery of Rumania Predicted.

The second must be an advance from Nish down the Morava Valley to Belgrade. When this has taken place the Danube route will be commanded and the allies will in addition open direct communications with Rumania. And just as soon as the allies are in touch with Rumania we may rest assured this nation, resentful of its treatment at German hands, mulcted and mutilated, will re-enter the war on our side.

Thus will be restored the southern front. Austria-Hungary will be threatened with invasion both from Serbia and from Rumania. An instant demand will be made upon German and Austrian reserves to meet the new danger and these reserves can only be obtained by weakening the western and Italian fronts.

In this way, and with very short delay, the Balkan campaign will begin to have direct and enormous influence upon the western campaign. The Germans will be compelled to retire in the west to shorten their line and get reserves for use in the new field. We may then reckon the Balkan front no longer a "side show," but become a detail in the main performance. To save Austria-Hungary from invasion, which spells ruin, Germany must get out of France and Western Belgium.

The New Road to the Dardanelles.

But there is a second aspect to the Balkan military problem. The surrender of Bulgaria opens a land-routed Constantinople. Once the allied forces have entered Turkey and opened communications with Rumania, D'Esperey can send troops eastward along the Salonica-Constantinople railway and attack Turkish defenses at the Dardanelles from the shore. Such an attack would instantly isolate Gallipoli.

We may then see, in the winter months, when operations to the north are impossible, a new joint army and naval attack upon the Dardanelles, and a successful reduction of the door to the Turkish capital. What is more probable is that the mere threat of this attack, once

Turkey has been completely isolated, will bring about the Turkish surrender already regarded as probable. In sum, on the military side, the next operations must be directed toward breaking the German control of the communications between the Central Powers and Turkey, the establishment of communications between Rumania and her old allies, and thereafter an attack both upon Austria and Turkey designed to compel both to consent to separate peace. We may expect Turkey to surrender once she is isolated. We may expect Rumania to re-enlist once she is sure of solid support from the western nations.

Possibilities of Austrian Collapse.

Finally, there remains the question of Austria. Unless she is instantly guaranteed against invasion from the south by German aid, a collapse at Vienna is inevitable. But such a guarantee can only be given by Germany if German armies are withdrawn behind the Meuse from Liège to Verdun. The liberation of Northern France and of Belgium must, therefore, follow automatically upon the logical exploitation of the Balkan victories and the consequent Bulgarian surrender.

There is now only one front; unity of command has achieved unity of action everywhere from the Holy Land to the North Sea.

In the Balkans the first crisis to be expected must come when the Germans have made their decision as to where they will defend the Constantinople-Vienna railway. They will be expected to defend Nish and Uskub, and they must rally troops to do this within a few days. If they fail, then they will lose contact with Turkey, surrender military mastery to the Danube, and be compelled to retire to the Danube.

If the Germans are successful in massing troops before Nish, they will have to abandon their western lines without delay, since their reserves will be withdrawn for the Balkans, and we shall see a great and immediate transformation of the whole situation in the West.

AMERICAN AID GUARANTEE OF VICTORY, SAYS MARSHAL JOFFRE

By the Associated Press. PARIS, Oct. 2.—Marshal Joffre, former Premier Viviani and Capt. Andre, head of the general commission for Franco-American war matters, were recently asked by the magazine Lectures Pour Tous to give an outline of what could be expected for an effort as great and as prolonged as will be necessary. It is a certain guarantee of our common victory.

"From the moment of my return from Washington I have affirmed my conviction in the realization and effect of America's aid, of which I clearly foresaw the full magnitude. This American aid is today a reality. I rejoice to see that America is ready for an effort as great and as prolonged as will be necessary. It is a certain guarantee of our common victory."

GERMAN SHELL KILLS 20 PATIENTS IN U. S. HOSPITAL

By the Associated Press. WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY NORTHWEST OF VERDUN, Tuesday, Oct. 1.—Twenty patients, many of them already suffering from wounds received in battle, were killed when a German shell struck an American hospital several nights ago. The hospital was only a short distance behind the fighting line.

It is possible that it was a stray shell, but it appears probable that a deliberate attempt was made to attack the hospital.

STATE SECRETARIES FOLLOW VON HERTLING

Von Bernstorff Among Those Mentioned as Probable Choices for German Chancellor.

By the Associated Press. AMSTERDAM, Oct. 2.—Plans are under consideration for the reorganization of both the Imperial German and Prussian ministries on the lines of a parliamentary system, according to the Berlin Tageblatt, which quotes Friedrich von Payer, the Imperial Vice Chancellor, to this effect.

The Vice Chancellor, the newspaper says, received the leaders of all parties yesterday and discussed the contemplated parliamentary reorganization, which the Vice Chancellor declared would extend to the Prussian as well as to the Imperial ministry. He also said that the abrogation of portions of articles 9 and 21 of the Constitution must be taken in hand as soon as possible.

The representatives of the Right of the Independent Socialists and of the Poles, the Tageblatt states, have refused to co-operate in the formation of a coalition Government.

French Make Important Gain in Rheims District.

By the Associated Press. WITH THE FRENCH ARMIES IN FRANCE, Tuesday, Oct. 1.—Gen. Berthelot's troops, widening the front of attack this afternoon, made further gains, occupying important observation points that give them views eastward upon the group of hills northwest of Rheims and northward toward the Chemin des Dames. Three thousand prisoners were taken over this front of about five miles. Reillon and Glennes were taken while further east the Beauregard farm, a most excellent observation point, was occupied. Another commanding position that fell into the hands of Gen. Berthelot's men was Hill No. 153, east of Romain, which gives them an excellent view through the group of hills north of Montigny.

PERSHING'S REPORT ON AMERICAN GAINS FOR YESTERDAY

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Further advances by the American forces advancing along the Meuse River and in the Argonne Forest were reported in Gen. Pershing's communique for yesterday, received last night at the War Department. American patrols have passed beyond Clerges and are maintaining contact with the enemy.

More than 100 hostile planes and 21 balloons have been shot down by American aviators since Sept. 26, Gen. Pershing said.

The statement follows: "Section A.—During the day we advanced our lines in the forest of Argonne further to the east our patrols have passed beyond Clerges and are operating north of that point on the road from Exermont to Gensmes, maintaining contact with the enemy."

"In the north our troops are advancing with the French and British and participating in their successes."

"Since Sept. 26 our aviators have shot down more than 100 hostile planes and 21 balloons, and have captured more than 100 prisoners."

NOTIFIED SON IS MISSING, THEN GETS LETTER FROM NEW YORK

Father Says One of the Grierson Twins Writes That He Has Been Invalided Home.

Albert Grierson, an undertaker at 4205 Evans avenue, received a telegram from the War Department yesterday announcing that his son, Albert T. Grierson, had been missing in action in France since July 18. A few hours later he received a letter from his son announcing his arrival in New York. He said he had been invalided home with his right arm temporarily paralyzed.

Albert T. Grierson and Walter Grierson, 19-year-old twins, have been the subject of stories that have come from France declaring that the officers and their comrades in the 1st Engineers were having trouble distinguishing one from the other—the like and Mike of the regiment. The story was said to have particular trouble with them.

Albert Grierson's letter did not tell the manner of his injury, but said that he hoped to get a furlough to visit St. Louis.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody Can Tell When You Darken Gray, Faded Hair With Sage Tea.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty of the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful. This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—ADV.

District Total Up to Last Midnight $68,425,941, Which Is 26 Per Cent of the Quota.

The total of St. Louis subscriptions to the Fourth Liberty Loan recorded up to last night, according to a round-number announcement made this morning by J. H. Henson Smith, chairman of the St. Louis metropolitan district of the Liberty Loan Organization, was $10,700,000.

The city's quota is $75,750,000. The figure announced includes only completed subscriptions. Many made subscriptions which have been made have not been reported officially, because they are in lists of employees whose returns have not been completed.

One $500,000 Subscription. The largest new subscription announced this morning was that of the Rice-Six Dry Goods Co. for $500,000. Yesterday's largest subscription was that of the International Shoe Co. for $1,000,000, in addition to which the officers and employees of the company will take $200,000 of bonds, as individuals.

The subscription of the B. Harris Wool Co. for $300,000 was announced today, with an additional $25,000 from B. Harris personally. The Marx & Haas Clothing Co. has subscribed $40,000, and the White-Law Bros. Chemical Co. $30,000. The packing firm of Nelson, Morris & Co. has subscribed $25,000 as the St. Louis part of its total subscription of $2,000,000. In East St. Louis, the company will subscribe $100,000.

Subscriptions for the Eighth (St. Louis) Federal Reserve District up to last midnight totaled $68,425,941. This is 26 per cent of the district's quota of $260,000,000. The eighth district includes Missouri, except Kansas City, and a western tier of counties; the entire State of Arkansas and parts of Indiana, Illinois, Kentucky, Tennessee and Mississippi. Illinois alone has states of that subscription with subscriptions totaling $13,554,700. The totals of other states are: Missouri (outside St. Louis), $10,789,500; Arkansas, $12,206,450; Indiana, $6,322,831; Kentucky, $4,409,450; Tennessee, $4,045,100; Mississippi, $2,487,850.

City hall and Municipal Court building employees of the city in 1918 have subscribed $415,320. About 500 Park Department employees gathered in the auditorium at Jefferson Memorial today, subscribed $35,000 in bonds. The Third Liberty Loan subscription of city employees was $495,100.

St. Louis County subscriptions officially reported up to today totaled $320,650, of which $58,000 were obtained by the women's division. St. Louis County divided into nine loan districts.

The campaign in St. Louis County is moving rapidly, according to Julius R. Nolte, sales director. The county's quota is $2,820,000. The county has been divided into nine districts, with quotas as follows:

District 1, Carondelet Township, $500,000; District 2, Kirkwood, $250,000; District 3, Meramec Township, $100,000; District 4, Webster Groves, $350,000; District 5, Maplewood, $125,000; District 6, Central Township, outside of Kirkwood, Maplewood and Webster Groves, $400,000; District 7, Bonhomme Township, $100,000; District 8, St. Ferdinand Township, west of Hall's Ferry road, $100,000; District 9, St. Ferdinand Township, east of Hall's Ferry road, $125,000.

The reports from Joe Gillick of the Carondelet district show that the employees of the Stupp Bros. Bridge and Iron Co. purchased 100 $50 bonds and are entitled to an honor flag.

Frank C. Rand reports that University City has exceeded its quota of $200,000.

The women of Webster Groves have sent in subscriptions amounting to $25,000 in two days. Mrs. R. H. McMath is chairman.

Three Marines, two in uniform, carrying shotguns of the kind to which the Kaiser particularly objects, and the third dressed as Uncle Sam, ride on the tank "Hun Chaser," which is proceeding west on Olive street as the local total of subscriptions grows. A dialogue is carried on between Uncle Sam and one of the men in uniform, and the latter declares that the Marines do not intend to quit fighting until the Marine Band plays "Die in the Streets of Berlin." Uncle Sam then turns to the men in the crowd, and asks, "What are you business men doing to keep step with my army?" This gives an opening for the speaker who accompanies the tank.

St. Charles County has reported that 2055 persons have subscribed $398,550 of a quota of $1,020,000. The Fourth Liberty Loan. Three of the 20 districts have exceeded their quotas. Subscriptions in the city of St. Charles are $255,550 of a quota of $395,550.

Illinois Troops Advanced More Than Six Miles on First Day of Big Attack

Reached Objectives From Near Dead Man's Hill Hours Ahead of Schedule—Enemy Striving to Keep Americans in Mud Near Verdun.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY NORTHWEST OF VERDUN, Tuesday, Oct. 1.—Illinois troops taking part in the offensive between the Meuse and the Argonne advanced more than six miles on the first day of the attack, the unit reaching its objective hours ahead of time.

The Illinois men pushed forward just to the west of the Meuse. Starting from their neighborhood of Dead Man's Hill, they headed directly north until half way to their destination and then turned to the northeast. Their advance was so rapid that in the region of Courcourt-Bit-Drancourt they came upon a party of Germans just about to sit down to a luncheon in their dugout. The party was overcome, and a German Colonel, who was one of the group, was shot in the head as he was attempting to escape.

The Illinois soldiers helped themselves to the Germans' lunch of porked cabbage and black bread. Seven kegs of beer, a supply of wine and a German typewriter were found in the dugout. The wounded Colonel told the officers he was astounded at the rapidity of the American advance. He had no idea that the Americans would reach that region for days, if at all, he said. The Colonel had so many war maps and other paraphernalia, including a large telescope, that the Americans had to get a truck to haul his belongings to headquarters.

Aviators Drop Cigarettes. The Illinois men had dinner and went to bed in the positions that had been occupied that morning by the enemy. During the afternoon American aviators dropped newspapers and cigarettes for the men, who had moved along the west bank of the Meuse beyond Courcourt and consolidated their positions before dark.

There was no apparent hesitation in the operations between the Argonne and the Meuse. It is due to the fact that along the entire front of 23 miles from the Meuse to the Argonne, the Argonne front there is only one good highway. This runs from Clermont to Varennes and divides at Charpenet, the branches running to Grand Ferry, to the northwest, and to Dun-sur-Meuse, to the northeast. This road and its branches are under the direct fire of the enemy guns.

Good Roads Ahead. There are other practical roads in the area, but they all converge at Montfaucon, which since the first day of the advance has been the center of heavy fighting and must remain for the time so tempting a target for the enemy guns. For this reason, every road and lane that avoids Montfaucon has been heavily overladen with traffic and the problem of supplying rations and ammunition to the front is one which would tax any staff and falls heavily on a staff not to such burdens. The ground ahead offers great opportunity. Three miles further on the Americans will come to roads radiating in all directions and will have left behind the mud in which they have been floundering during the last week. Without doubt the enemy will seek to keep them here as long as they can, but the French on the left have already sent him a message to that effect.

The Americans will give a good account of themselves. U. S. Airman Superior. Already the enemy has been obliged to throw four regiments of shock troops against the Americans and one of his divisions has been rushed back into line after being out of it only four days. The number of his guns is also increased and both wings of the American forces have been subjected to heavy shelling. The enemy taking advantage of the inevitable lull which comes when heavy guns are being moved forward.

German airman have also been active and their number has been notably increased, doubtless in consequence of the amazing series of victories won by the Americans. There will be a bitter struggle for the air.

At the daughter's home. Mrs. Catherine Murphy, aged 78, of Fulton, Mo., died Tuesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. C. Gellie, at 426 1/2 street, Alton. She is survived by her husband, John, and daughter. The body will be taken here to Fulton for burial.

TRY MAKING YOUR OWN COUGH REMEDY

You Can Save About $2, and Have a Better Remedy Than the Ready-Made Kind. Easily Done.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you probably could not get as much real curative power as there is in this simple home-made cough syrup, which is easily prepared in a few minutes.

Get from any drugist 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with syrup, using either plain granulated sugar syrup, clarified molasses, honey, or cod liver oil, as desired. The result is a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Taster pleasant and never spoils.

This Pinex and Syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the nasty throat irritation and breaks the sore, irritated membranes so gently and easily that it is really astonishing.

A cough may be usually overcome by the ordinary cough and bronchitis remedy, whooping cough and bronchitis, there is nothing better. Pinex is a most valuable essential compound of genuine Norway pine extract and has been used for generations to break up severe, irritating coughs.

1090 CASUALTIES IN ARMY; 187 KILLED

699 Wounded in New List—Total Casualties in Army Now 37,971.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. WASHINGTON, Tuesday, Oct. 1.—Today's official casualty list shows 1959 army casualties, and 28 for the Marine Corps. The army casualties comprise 187 killed in action, 75 died from wounds, 32 died of disease, 15 died from accident and other causes, 3 died from airplane accident, 75 missing, 8 prisoners and 699 wounded. For the Marines, 7 killed in action, 2 died of wounds, 1 missing, 18 wounded.

Corrections in the list of missing reduce the former number of those reported missing by 34, who have returned to duty or been found in hospital. With this deduction, the new total of army casualties is 37,971. The marine casualty total is 277, making an aggregate of 41,395 for both branches. The detailed tolls are:

ARMY.	Count

It was made known at the tuberculosis conference on the Mississippi River today that a sanatorium for the treatment of tuberculosis patients of small means is being established at Ash Grove, N. C. Dr. Karl von Ruck, owner of the Weyh Sanatorium there, which has a large income from the treatment of wealthy patients, will devote all profits to maintaining the charitable sanatorium.

VIENNA FINDS HOPE IN WILSON SPEECH

Dispatch From Austrian Capital Says Points in New York Address Are Step to Peace.

By the Associated Press. AMSTERDAM, Tuesday, Oct. 1.—The first points made by President Wilson in his New York speech, taken in conjunction with the letter of the German Emperor to Chancellor von Hertling, are looked upon by Austria-Hungarians as constituting an important step in the direction of peace.

The consensus of opinion of the dual monarchy, according to a message from the Vienna semi-official news agency, is that the Emperor's letter solves the question of public demoralization in Germany, while the points made by President Wilson seem to offer a chance of agreement, though it is not yet clear, definitely, what the exact principles laid down by the Central Powers, and on the other hand, that his points "do contain a definite negation of the war aims prevailing in the face of the Central Powers."

The President's latest speech, says the message, opens fresh ground for a peace discussion, "which is the main thing." The message concludes by saying that the Austro-Hungarian monarchy must continue to labor untiringly in the direction of peace and it exhorts the Austrian Parliament, which assembled Tuesday for its autumn session, to devote its entire attention to that end.

ALLIES ADVANCE 75 MILES IN NORTHERN RUSSIA IN 2 WEEKS. American, British, French and Russian Troops in Drive Valley, 275 Miles Southeast of Archangel.

By Associated Press. ARCHANGEL, Monday, Sept. 30.—American, British, Russian and French troops today occupy villages on both banks of the De Vira River to a point 125 miles north of Kotlas, in the Government of Vologda. They have advanced 75 miles in the last two weeks and they now are about 275 miles southeast of Archangel. The river is blocked further south by Bolshevik mines and barges which have been sunk in the channel.

By the Vaga River, however, progress is unobstructed and Americans are among the forces occupying the important town of Shekarsk.

ST. LOUISAN WRITES OF BATTLES IN AIR

Lieut. Rucker One of 4 Flyers to Attack 12 Germans 3 Miles Up.

Letters and newspaper clippings describing how Lieut. E. W. Rucker Jr., a teacher in 1917 at University City High School, won the Distinguished Service Cross and other of his air experiences, have been received by his brother, Thomas J. Rucker, 5429 Berlin avenue, an instructor at Graves Manual Training School.

Lieut. Rucker also has been awarded the French Croix de Guerre. On Aug. 25 he completed six months' flying at the front and now is a flight leader.

Washington dispatches last Thursday named Lieut. Rucker among pilots who have been officially credited with bringing down one German airplane. The service for which he was decorated was a battle with four of his squadron, against 12 to 15 Germans who had attacked three American reconnaissance planes.

Lieut. Rucker's "brother" in single-handed combat with four. A Paris paper printed this: "First Lieut. Edward W. Rucker, Aero Squadron—Outnumbered and handicapped by his presence for half the German lines, he and three flying companions fought brilliantly a large group of enemy planes, bringing down or putting to flight all in the attacking party, while performing an important mission near Lunenburg, France, on June 23, 1918."

Rucker's Own Story. Lieut. Rucker's own description of the fight is as follows: "Four of us yesterday attacked 12 to 15 scouts who were preparing to attack some big buses which we were to convoy. It was the worst case—black crosses on dazzling white backgrounds flashing in the sunlight. We were about 15,000 feet up and about 10 miles behind the German lines.

"Three of us eventually landed at our drone, each thinking the other done for and each believing we had got a plane. It afterwards was learned that the fourth was made prisoner by the Germans.

"About 250 rounds were gone from my gun. There was a bullet hole in my prop. I suppose I shot it there. I didn't dream I had used that much ammunition, but I guess I swung out both guns all the while I was driving on four Huns in succession.

"About half an hour ago we received an official communication to the effect that one Hun had been seen to fall. Of course any pilot cannot be credited with it and we were too high up to observe ourselves whether the Hun that seemed to go out of control did fall, but from reports the squadron seems to credit the one down to me.

Another deal with the latest method of fighting. "I have just had the darndest news about three of five of our fliers who went on a voluntary patrol this evening." Lieut. Rucker writes "These would-be Bishops and Gungnors don't realize that this war is in the days of those boys and that success is just now by the number of Huns to one's credit, but by the success of the assigned mission."

BROWN "BROKE" BY FAILURE OF HIS BROKERAGE FIRM

It had been wired to the firm here, but said he could not find these messages on file in the local office.

Brown Former Shoe Salesman. It was learned that one of the principal creditors of the firm, though his name did not appear in the bankruptcy and receivership petitions, is David Goldsmith, who has offices with Moses N. Sale, attorney for the creditors.

In behalf of Schmidt, Attorney Frank said he had for years done most of the trading for the firm and that he had a right to do this in Brown's absence, and if he made mistakes in judgment, Brown, as a partner, was equally liable, whether or not the trades were made with his knowledge. He said Brown was a cousin of George Warren Brown, chairman of the Brown Shoe Co., and had been reputed to be wealthy. Before entering the brokerage business Alexander H. Brown was for 16 years a salesman for the Brown Shoe Co.

Girls! Act Now! Hair Coming Out Sign of Dandruff. A small bottle of "Danderine" keeps hair thick, strong, beautiful.

Girls! Try this! Doubles beauty of your hair in a few moments.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable luster, softness and luxuriance.

Get a small bottle of Keweenaw Danderine for a few cents at any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that all you really need are beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.—ADV.

The Eternal Battle

It is being waged all the time—the battle between you and mankind's greatest enemy, the disease germ.

A poor night's sleep, a period of strain or overwork and down goes your vitality—your resistance to disease is weakened.

This is the opportunity the germ awaits, and he makes the most of it.

The best defensive is a strong offensive: attack the unseen menace that always threatens your family. Your strongest weapon against disease germs is

Lysol
Disinfectant

It annihilates all germ life instantly, and when used regularly will keep the danger spots in your home absolutely germ-proof.

Lysol is very economical. Mixed with water a 50c bottle makes 5 gallons of powerful disinfectant; a 25c bottle makes 2 gallons.

Begin today to disinfect your home with Lysol: you will then make a better fight against disease than it can possibly make against you and yours.

Lysol is also invaluable for Personal Hygiene.

Lysol Toilet Soap Contains Lysol, and therefore protects the skin from germ infection. Its refreshingly soothing and healing and helpful for improving the skin. Ask your dealer. If he hasn't got it, ask him to order it for you.

Lysol Shaving Cream Contains Lysol, and kills germs on razor and shaving brush. (where germs abound), guards the tiny cuts from infection, and gives the antiseptic shave. If your dealer hasn't got it, ask him to order a supply for you.

Easy Way to Stop Waste of Food

In this country alone rats destroy and spoil over two hundred million dollars' worth of foodstuffs every year, and why? Because they are not being killed. They are not being killed by the old-fashioned methods of poisoning. They are being killed by a new method of exterminating rats than the old-fashioned Electric Paste, a scientific product that has been used successfully by the U. S. Government in its different campaigns against the rat. A small box, costing only a few cents, will usually completely free the house from rats and mice. It will also effectively destroy cockroaches and waterbugs—ADV.

How He Quit Tobacco

This veteran, S. B. Lamphere, was addicted to the excessive use of tobacco for many years. He wanted to quit, but he needed something to help him. He learned of a free book that tells about tobacco habit, and how to conquer it quickly, easily and safely. In a recent letter he writes: "I have no desire for tobacco any more, I feel like a new man."

Anyone desiring a copy of this book on tobacco habit, smoking and chewing can get it free, postpaid, by writing to: EDWARD J. WATSON, 2241 more than the FOUR others St. Louis newspapers combined—and almost four times as many as the nearest competitor.

Begin Preparations to Force Another Vote in Senate, Following Loss of Amendment Resolution.

BILL KEPT ALIVE THROUGH MANEUVER

Tactics of New Mexican Senator in Changing Vote Keeps Measure From Going Over to 1919.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Characterizing the Senate defeat of the woman suffrage amendment resolution as "only temporary," supporters of the measure today began preparations to force another vote, probably after the November elections. Despite the intervention of President Wilson in the heated contest by means of an address to the Senate, Monday, and personal letters yesterday to anti-suffrage Democratic members, the Senate defeated the resolution by a vote of 54 to 30—two votes less than the necessary two-thirds.

By a parliamentary maneuver, after the vote had been taken but before the result was announced, Senator Jones of New Mexico, chairman of the Woman Suffrage Committee, changed his vote from the affirmative to the negative and thus kept the resolution on the Senate calendar. Otherwise, the resolution would have gone over until the December, 1919, session and then would have had to be re-passed by the House before the Senate could act.

Tentative plans of the suffrage forces today call for postponement until after the fall elections. Many express themselves as "disappointed" but not dismayed by the result, and all believe that the attitude manifested by President Wilson will aid in obtaining favorable action in time to permit State Legislatures next January to vote on ratification.

Senator Shafroth of Colorado, predicted today in announcing plans for a constitution of the campaign in support of the resolution, that it would be finally passed by the Senate before the present Congress ends on March 4 next. Resolutions are to be introduced, he said, in all state legislatures convening next January instructing their senators to vote for the measure.

"Stronger Than Ever"—Mrs. Catt. Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the National American Woman Suffrage Association, made this statement on the defeat of the resolution:

"We are stronger today, with the right and the President and 62 Senators on our side, than we ever were before. We would rather be defeated with the President and the 62 than win with the 34 who voted or paired against our measure. Where the President stood yesterday, the nation will stand tomorrow."

Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, honorary president of the association, said: "We are disappointed but not dismayed. We did not obtain our objective, but we gained much. We have the same determination and courage as that displayed by our brave countrymen in Belgium, France and Italy, who are fighting the same battle for the world. We are proud of and deeply grateful to the President of the United States and to the 62 Senators."

W. J. Bryan, in Washington en route for the south, said:

"I am very sorry that the vote in the Senate was not sufficient to submit the amendment, but I have no doubt that the resolution will pass before the first of March. The higher interests will be dealt as soon as 26 states have ratified the prohibition amendment and the liquor interests have been the backbone of the opposition to suffrage in the North."

How Members Voted.

Those voting for the measure were: Democrats—Ashurst, Chamberlain, Culberson, Gerry, Gore, Henderson, Johnson of South Dakota, Kendrick, Kirby, Lewis, McKellar, Martin of Kentucky, Myers, Nugent, Owen, Phelan, Pittman, Ransdell, Robinson, Shafroth, Sheppard, Smith of Arizona, Thomas, Thompson, Vardaman and Walsh—26.

Republicans—Caldier, Colt, Cummings, Curtis, Fernald, France, Goff, Gronna, Jones of Washington, Kellogg, Kenyon, La Follette, Lenroot, McCumber, McNary, Nelson, New, Norris, Page, Poinsette, Smith of Michigan, Smoot, Sterling, Sutherland, Townsend, Warren and Watson—27.

Those voting against the measure were: Democrats—Bankhead, Benet, Fletcher, Guion, Hardwick, Hitchcock, Jones of New Mexico, Martin of Virginia, Overman, Pomeroy, Reed, Saulsbury, Shields, Simmons, Smith of Georgia, Smith of Maryland, Smith of South Carolina, Trammell, Underwood, Williams and Wolcott—21.

Republicans—Bryce, DeLoach, Dillingham, Drew, Hale, Lodge, McLean, Penrose, Wadsworth and Weeks—10.

Senators Who Were Paired. The following senators were paired: Beckham of Kentucky, Democrat, against with Hollis of New Hampshire and Frelinghuysen of New Jersey, Republicans; Borah of Idaho, Republican, against with Fall of New Mexico and Harding of Ohio, Republican.

Do you want the war to end?

YOU do; everybody does; the enemy most of all. But you want it to end right; our ending, not his.

You're voting right now on ending the war; you're saying in a practical way, how soon and how much you want it to end.

The 4th Liberty Loan

It will help end the war; right. It's the next step. Every dollar you put into Liberty Bonds is a vote to end the war as quickly as possible; every dollar you could, and don't put in, is a vote to keep the war going on.

Never mind the Liberty Bonds you bought before; a good soldier doesn't let the thought of yesterday's battle make him forget today's or tomorrow's fight. The 4th Liberty Loan looks forward, not back.

Missouri and King of Utah, Democrats.

Although unable, because of a pair arrangement, to vote directly for the suffrage measure, Senator Willey urged that the amendment be adopted.

Changes From 1914 Vote.
When the same resolution, the draft Susan B. Anthony first advanced 40 years ago, was last before the Senate March 19, 1914, it also was defeated, 35 voting for its adoption and 24 in opposition. Senators Gore, Johnson of South Dakota, McCumber of North Dakota, Page of Vermont, Pittman of Nevada and Vardaman of Mississippi then voted against it, but yesterday they supported it. On the former vote it also was announced that Senator Fall of New Mexico was paired against the resolution, while in this vote he was paired in its support. Also on the 1914 vote, it was announced that Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania, who was absent, favored adoption, while this time he voted in the negative.

The vote yesterday came just before 4 o'clock, after one of the most bitter and spectacular contests in the Senate in years. Today charges and counter charges of responsibility for the result were hurled back and forth, with partisan politics again an issue. In a last effort to win over Democrats opposing the measure, following his address to the Senate Monday, President Wilson yesterday sent personal letters to Senators Overman of North Carolina, Shields of Tennessee, Benet of South Carolina, Martin of Kentucky and it was reported, to a few others, earnestly seeking their support. All efforts were futile.

"Defeat Temporary," Says Miss Paul.
Miss Alice Paul, chairman of the National Woman's party, issued this statement on the vote:
"This defeat is a temporary defeat. The vote of the United States Senate today, we are convinced, will be reversed before this Congress ends."

Mrs. James W. Wadsworth, president of the National Association, opposed to Woman Suffrage, issued a statement, saying:

"Our faith in the wisdom and integrity of the United States Senate is justified. The principal self-determination, the constitutional right of each state to settle this question for itself by popular vote, has triumphed over every consideration of political expediency."

Chairman Jones announced he would not call up his motion for reconsideration until he is certain of a majority. "The fact that we needed only two votes shows that the country favors the resolution," he said. "While I do not believe that the President's efforts changed a vote, I am glad that he came before the Senate and made his position clear. Now it cannot be charged that he has not done and did not do all in his power to secure adoption of the resolution."

Reed Failed to Rise When President Entered Senate, Miss Young Says.

A telegram from Miss Rose Young, editor of the Woman's Cause, to Mrs. Walter McNab Miller, president of the Missouri Equal Suffrage League, last night, said: "Reed only person in Senate who did not rise when President Wilson entered. Missouri is misrepresented by a man who not only refuses to support the President's war program, but tries to insult him in a small and ridiculous fashion." Senator Reed denied that he had shown any disrespect for the President.

Mrs. Ernest W. Stix, president of the St. Louis Equal Suffrage League, last night wired the appreciation of the league to President Wilson for his effort to cause the submission of the amendment.

C. R. WOODWARD, ARRESTED FOR STEALING $186,000, GIVES BOND

Former Cashier of Federal Lead Co. Held for Prosecution at Flat River, Mo.
FLAT RIVER, Mo., Oct. 2.—C. R. Woodward, former cashier and purchasing agent of the Federal Lead Co. plant here, was arrested yesterday on a charge of embezzling $186,000 of the company's funds, and after a preliminary hearing was released on a $150,000 bond to appear at the November term of the Circuit Court.

It was made known about a week ago that there was a large discrepancy in Woodward's accounts. This was said to have been caused by the padding of payrolls and the falsification of reports of sales of scrap ore and junk.

Woodward recently visited St. Louis and admitted to Charles A. Niel, his partner in a chemical company there, that there was a discrepancy in his accounts with the Federal Lead Co. He said he had been speculating in stocks for six years.

AMERICAN OFFICIALS ACCUSED

German Influence Alleged in Case of Guatemala Representatives.
By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Grave charges against certain American officials at Guatemala City have been brought to the attention of the State Department and are being investigated. German influence is alleged, and one official is accused of general misconduct. Secretary Lansing would not discuss the subject today beyond saying an investigation was being made.

Girl Dies of Blood Poisoning.

The death of Leona Uselmann, 5 years old, of 2504 Slattery street, from blood poisoning last Sunday at the Mulanphy Hospital, is being investigated by the coroner. Police reported the child had attended school last Thursday, when she was taken ill suddenly and sent home. She grew worse, they say, and was removed to the hospital.

MEMBER OF 138TH WOUNDED SEVERELY

Cousin Writes That Edward C. Kruse Lost a Hand Aug. 26
—Marine Is Killed.

William McK. Fox, 20 years old, only son of Mrs. Fannie Fox of 2765 Arlington avenue, a widow, is named in today's official Marine Corps casualty list as having been killed in action. Mrs. Fox has been notified that his death occurred July 22.

Fox enlisted in the marines in May, 1917. He had previously been learning the plumber's trade. He went to France a year ago, and was a member of the 28th Company Sixth Regiment, Marine Corps. Besides his mother, a sister survives him.

Fox is the eighty-fourth St. Louisan reported as having made the supreme sacrifice in France. Edward C. Kruse, a member of the 138th (St. Louis) Infantry, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kruse of 2567W Hebert street, is listed as wounded severely. His parents have learned, in a letter from a cousin in the army, that Kruse lost his left hand as the result of wounds inflicted Aug. 26. He enlisted in August, 1917.

Illinois Dies From Wounds.
Henry E. Henkhaus, son of Mrs. Julia Henkhaus of Fosterburg, Ill., near Alton, died July 13 from wounds inflicted in the battle of Chateau-Thierry, according to an official telegram received by his mother. He was in the Sixty-ninth Company, Fifth Regiment, Marine Corps, and had been wounded once before. Richard E. Sterneck, 28, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Sterneck of 1515 Hebert street, is listed as having been severely wounded. He has written to his parents that one of his arms was broken, and he was gassed, when a shell struck his dugout, July 15. A comrade who was in the dugout was killed.

While he was in a base hospital, he wrote, the hospital was bombed from a German airplane. He said he was eager to get out and fight the Germans again. Sterneck was formerly a collector for a furniture store. He is in the headquarters company, Thirtieth Infantry. A brother, Robert, is in the army at a Southern camp.

Others Wounded.
Sergeant Ralph C. Arthur, 27, formerly of 3219 Kossuth avenue, named in today's list, was severely wounded in action between July 18 and 24, according to word received by his brother, C. Y. Arthur, 3672A Shaw avenue, from the War Department. The soldier enlisted in St. Louis in October, 1916, and was with M. company, Eighteenth Infantry. He was formerly a traveling man. Two letters from him to his brother, dated Aug. 12 and 27, do not mention his being wounded.

The letters were both typewritten, which caused his brother to believe that they were probably dictated in a hospital.

Another brother, Dolph L. Arthur, who is in the marines, is aboard the battleship South Dakota.

The name of Corp. Ralph W. Ryan Jr. appeared in the list of severely wounded, and the name of Mrs. Noddy Ryan, 4101 West Pine boulevard, appeared as his next of kin. At the West Pine boulevard address, which is a boarding house, the Ryans did not appear to be known.

Wounded Man's Mother Away.
The name of Max B. Howell, next of kin Mrs. Alice Howell of 800 North King's highway, was also listed with the severely wounded. At the King's highway house it was learned that Mrs. Howell is now with a married daughter in New Orleans. Those at the house knew she had a son in the service, but did not know in what command he was.

UPHOLDS ARMY REPUTATION FOR FIGHTING SPIRIT WHEN ARRESTED

Sergeant in Incubate Ward After Controversy Has Fractured Jaw, but Morale Is Intact.

Two detectives and a policeman who undertook to arrest an army sergeant at Union Station last night, learned something about the army's fighting spirit, and paid for their tuition with several large patches of skin and several minutes of strenuous exercise.

Sergeant William Riecke, 22, attracted the attention of Detectives Dennis and Stangler, and they questioned him. He had no furlough papers, and asserted that he didn't have to make any explanations to anybody. When they started to take him to headquarters, the fun began. One of the detectives went down, and Policeman Murphy arrived, and went into action.

At the first aid dressing station it was found that Riecke's jaw was fractured, but his morale was intact, and he was locked in the incubate ward.

POLICEMAN JOINS MARINES

Deters at 42 Passes Physical Examination With 100 Per Cent.
Joseph H. Peters of 3123 Franklin avenue, who has been in the Police Department 11 years and for two years has been the traffic policeman at Broadway and Washington avenue, resigned yesterday. He has enlisted in the Marines.

He is 42 years old, but passed a 100 per cent physical examination. He is 5 feet 11 1/2 inches in height and weighs 150 pounds. Before he went on the traffic squad his beat was in the vicinity of Jefferson avenue and Olive street, where he had several encounters with the Bottoms Gang, one of which he was wounded.

The Real Secret of Rejuvenating the Face

She holds the true secret of facial rejuvenation who has learned how to remove the dead skin particles as fast as they appear. It's a secret anyone may possess. The aged, faded or discolored surface skin may be gradually absorbed, in an entirely safe and rational manner, by the timely application of ordinary mercurized wax. Within a week or two the underlying skin, youthful and beautiful to behold, has taken the place of the discarded cuticle. So little of the old skin is absorbed each day there's no inconvenience at all, and no one suspects you are putting anything on your face. The mercurized wax, procurable at any drug store (an ounce is sufficient), is applied like cold cream. In the morning it is erased with soap and water. It's the best thing known for freckles, blackheads, pimples, moth patches, liver spots and fine surface wrinkles.

For the deeper wrinkles, an excellent recipe is: Powdered eggshells, one cup; dissolved in one-half pint of witch hazel. Rubbing the face with the solution produces quick and wonderful results.—ADV.

J. S. CARTER JR. GETS THE CROIX DE GUERRE

19-Year-Old St. Louis Ambulance Driver With Gen. Mangin's Division.

John S. Carter Jr., 19 years old, ambulance driver, serving with the Forty-eighth Division of the French Army, commanded by Gen. Mangin, has written his father, John S. Carter Sr., of 4944 Lindell boulevard, that was decorated with the French Croix de Guerre on Sept. 9. He writes that he is forwarding the decoration to his mother.

Carter said his son's letter contained no particulars of the exploit for which he was decorated, but a newspaper clipping inclosed referred to the fighting at Coucy le Chateau during the French advance in August.

Young Carter had been a student at Soldan High School. He went to France as a volunteer ambulance driver with the Washington University unit, in May, 1917, and enlisted in the United States Ambulance Service in September, 1917.

STATEMENT ON CONDITIONS OF CROPS IN THIS DISTRICT

Corn 10.7 Per Cent Below Aug. 1 Estimate and 14.7 Per Cent Below 10-Year Average.

The statement of the conditions of crops and business in the St. Louis Federal Reserve District was made public today by William McC. Martin, chairman of the board.

The condition of corn in the seven states has been estimated at 63.7 per cent, which is 14.7 below the 10-year average and 10.7 per cent below the Aug. 1 estimate. The oats crop is estimated to be 90.6 per cent, which is 11.6 per cent better than the 10-year average. The cotton crop is estimated to be 86.6 per cent, which is 16.5 below the 10-year average, cotton having been damaged severely.

Shipments of all livestock show an increase over the same month last year.

Manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers declare that the volume of business is greater than for the same period last year, traceable to higher prices, for in some instances the number of sales is smaller.

Department stores have noted a response of the public to the slogan "Buy your Christmas shopping now." Boot and shoe manufacturers, who for a long period have had no salesmen on the road, have started out men for spring delivery, some limiting their sales to orders for which they have leather on hand.

ASSOCIATION OF CREDIT MEN TO ADVISE DRAFTED MERCHANTS

Offer to Continue Businesses Which Can Be Conducted Without Loss Posted With Local Boards.

The St. Louis Association of Credit Men is having posted in the offices of the Draft Boards an offer of free assistance to business men called for military service.

Expert advice is offered in determining whether the registrant's business can be continued or whether it would be better to liquidate.

The Association plans, where the registrant desires and where the business can be continued without loss, to take charge during his absence.

"It is our aim to surround the registrant with sound and dependable advice," the offer reads, "and to have him go into the service with the knowledge that he has not lost his business nor his standing in the mercantile community."

The Association membership comprises 1000 manufacturers, wholesalers and jobbers in St. Louis and vicinity and is a branch of the National Association of Credit Men.

WAR PAINTINGS SHOWN TONIGHT

Display Will Include as Many as Can Be Hunt in Rotunda of City Hall.

The exhibition of war paintings by soldiers of France will be opened at 8 o'clock this evening in the rotunda of the city hall, Twelfth and Market streets, by Mayor Kiel, Rolla Wells, Governor of the Eighth Federal Reserve Bank, and W. R. Compton, chairman of the Liberty Loan Organization.

As many of the 600 paintings will be displayed as can be hung in the rotunda. They are being shown to stimulate sales of the Liberty Loan. Over 85 artists are represented. Many of them enlisted in August, 1914. Some are still in the trenches, others have been invalided home and still others are now prisoners. The exhibition will be continued until Oct. 15.

MURAD

The One Big Gun!

Women of St. Louis

You will be visited this week by women representatives that your Government has sent. Give them a truly American welcome.

These women carry a patriotic message from your Government to you. Approximately 5000 of them (one for every block) have enlisted in this splendid work and are giving their time and talents to the Government when their services can be most helpful. They are really taking the place of their brothers, husbands and sons who have joined the colors, many of whom are now across the seas and giving their all in the fight for Democracy. These women are helping Uncle Sam to fight the battle at home and are coming to you to appeal to your Americanism and loyalty and to enlist your support in the Fourth Liberty Loan campaign.

In this crisis, our interests are parallel. Making the Fourth Liberty Loan campaign a success is as much to your interest as it is to these women's. Your boy or husband or brother is probably over there in France with their boys. You want to see them made as comfortable as possible—you want to see them supplied with the necessities and you want them safeguarded to the fullest degree against all possible damage until such time as an honorable and lasting peace can be concluded.

There is only one way, and that is for every woman, as well as man and child in this great and glorious country to not only lend their moral, but their financial support and buy Fourth Liberty Bonds. No matter what sacrifice you may be obliged to make, no matter how much you will have to stint here or there, it is nothing compared to the sacrifices that are being made by our brave lads. The only worry that the boys in France have is, "Will the folks at home hold out with their support till this thing is over?" Let us dispel all such worries by getting back of this Fourth Liberty Loan to the fullest degree.

So the Government bespeaks for these splendid women who are going to visit you, a joyous welcome and unqualified support. Look for them—anticipate their visit and have the cash or a check ready for the initial payment on the bonds which you purchase. These women, of course, will have their credentials issued by the Liberty Loan Organization, which they will present when they call.

Saint Louis' quota for the Fourth Liberty Loan is $75,856,900—twice the amount allotted to us in the Third Loan. To do your part, therefore, you must

Double Your Subscription to Fourth Liberty Bonds

Lack of ready money is no reason for refusing to subscribe. Ten per cent is all that is asked in cash. (If you buy on the weekly payment plan, only eight per cent is required.) Have the money for the first payment ready when the canvasser calls. You don't have to pay cash for your bonds. You can buy them on the weekly payment plan; or any bank in St. Louis will lend you ninety per cent of the face value of your bonds.

MISSOURIAN AMONG FIFTY SOLDIERS BACK TO AID LOAN

Walter Pierce of Newtonia, Marine, Was Wounded at Belleau Wood, Captured and Rescued.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Walter Pierce of Newtonia, Mo., a private in the Fifth Regiment of Marines, was one of 50 wounded American soldiers who returned from France yesterday to assist in the Liberty Loan campaign. He had a remarkable experience.

During the fighting in Belleau Wood, June 23, he was wounded twice in the left arm. He rolled into a shell hole, where he stayed from Sunday until Tuesday morning, when he was captured by a German patrol and taken to the enemy lines. However, the Americans attacked the same afternoon, and Pierce was rescued by his comrades, when the Germans retired and left him behind.

He was only a Papier Mache Soldier, but Did Great Service in Observation Work.

BY MARTIN GREEN.
(A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch and New York World, Who Has Just Returned From France.)

"Chinese soldiers," as the pieces of war property are called, are used frequently in trench warfare to trick the enemy into revealing positions which cannot be located by air observation or talks with prisoners. They are used in many different ways and under different circumstances and they are nearly always effective because, against selected backgrounds or under selected weather conditions, it is impossible to tell them from real soldiers. Even in daylight, so perfectly are they cut out and mounted and painted, they are deceptive at a distance. Incidentally, the Germans use them, too.

One hot afternoon last summer a German sniper was making things mighty uncomfortable for the occupants of an American front-line trench. He was concealed in the ruins of a village back of the German lines and so skillfully concealed that our observers could not come anywhere near locating his hiding place. Frequently he sent a bullet into our parapet dangerously near to one of our observation posts. One of his bullets had passed through a crevice in our sandbag protection and dropped on a soldier sitting in the trench writing a letter.

A steel helmet, on top of a rifle barrel, was passed along a short sector of the trench, where it was necessary to stoop almost double to get out of sight. A bullet from the sniper whizzed over, struck the helmet, was deflected and slightly wounded an officer standing at the door of a dugout 20 feet away. Other helmets were passed along the same place, but the sniper refused to shoot at them. The Lieutenant in command sent back to headquarters for a "Jimmy Casey."

"Jimmy Casey" arrives.

That night "Jimmy Casey" arrived and the next morning, while there was still a mist on the ground, although the sun was shining brightly, the head of "Jimmy Casey" was cautiously raised over the parapet. At first only the top of his helmet appeared. He ducked, and in a minute or two the top of his helmet appeared again. There was desultory machine-gun fire all along the line. For the third time "Jimmy Casey" showed himself for a reconnoiter of No Man's Land. This time he popped up quickly, showing not only his helmet, but his face and one shoulder. Zing! A bullet went through "Jimmy Casey's" head and down he tumbled into the trench.

Immediately the Lieutenant and another officer and an expert rifle shot "bumped on Jimmy" and held a post mortem. His position when he showed his head over the parapet had been carefully marked. The round showed the bullet had struck him in the left eye, passed through his head and emerged just back of his right ear. The Lieutenant had a map of the trench positions on both sides on the ground before him. On the top of the map he placed a compass. After making some calculations in pencil on the margin of the map he drew a line from the position on the trench which "Jimmy Casey" had occupied when he was shot to the marks on the map indicating the ruins of the village back of the German lines. After this he went to his observation post with the map and carefully studied the village ruins through a glass.

Sniper Finally Located.

By reference to his map he established that the line he had drawn passed for purposes of his observation, through what was left of a roofless stone structure that had served the village women in days of peace as a conchity wash house. There they had gathered to scrub and pound their household clothing on the edge of a stone-lined pool. The pool was still full of water, covered with green scum. And there was water in the pool had been shown by photographs taken by our airplane observers.

"Heine," said the Lieutenant to himself, "is in that pool, probably up to his neck in water, with his ammunition on a dry shelf in front of him, sniping at us through a hole in the wall."

He called a runner and scribbled a message which he sent to the rear. In about 15 minutes a shell from an American 75 landed a little beyond the wash house. Another landed a little in front of it. A third struck it fair. Other shells landed in the same spot. After that no more bullets came from the sniper and the paper mache head and torso of "Jimmy Casey" was sent to battalion headquarters as Exhibit A in the report of how a sniper was located and silenced. "Jimmy Casey" is a product of the property room of the war.

HOW "JIMMY CASEY" LOCATED A SNIPER

He Was Only a Papier Mache Soldier, but Did Great Service in Observation Work.

BY MARTIN GREEN.
(A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch and New York World, Who Has Just Returned From France.)

"Chinese soldiers," as the pieces of war property are called, are used frequently in trench warfare to trick the enemy into revealing positions which cannot be located by air observation or talks with prisoners. They are used in many different ways and under different circumstances and they are nearly always effective because, against selected backgrounds or under selected weather conditions, it is impossible to tell them from real soldiers. Even in daylight, so perfectly are they cut out and mounted and painted, they are deceptive at a distance. Incidentally, the Germans use them, too.

One hot afternoon last summer a German sniper was making things mighty uncomfortable for the occupants of an American front-line trench. He was concealed in the ruins of a village back of the German lines and so skillfully concealed that our observers could not come anywhere near locating his hiding place. Frequently he sent a bullet into our parapet dangerously near to one of our observation posts. One of his bullets had passed through a crevice in our sandbag protection and dropped on a soldier sitting in the trench writing a letter.

A steel helmet, on top of a rifle barrel, was passed along a short sector of the trench, where it was necessary to stoop almost double to get out of sight. A bullet from the sniper whizzed over, struck the helmet, was deflected and slightly wounded an officer standing at the door of a dugout 20 feet away. Other helmets were passed along the same place, but the sniper refused to shoot at them. The Lieutenant in command sent back to headquarters for a "Jimmy Casey."

"Jimmy Casey" arrives.

That night "Jimmy Casey" arrived and the next morning, while there was still a mist on the ground, although the sun was shining brightly, the head of "Jimmy Casey" was cautiously raised over the parapet. At first only the top of his helmet appeared. He ducked, and in a minute or two the top of his helmet appeared again. There was desultory machine-gun fire all along the line. For the third time "Jimmy Casey" showed himself for a reconnoiter of No Man's Land. This time he popped up quickly, showing not only his helmet, but his face and one shoulder. Zing! A bullet went through "Jimmy Casey's" head and down he tumbled into the trench.

Immediately the Lieutenant and another officer and an expert rifle shot "bumped on Jimmy" and held a post mortem. His position when he showed his head over the parapet had been carefully marked. The round showed the bullet had struck him in the left eye, passed through his head and emerged just back of his right ear. The Lieutenant had a map of the trench positions on both sides on the ground before him. On the top of the map he placed a compass. After making some calculations in pencil on the margin of the map he drew a line from the position on the trench which "Jimmy Casey" had occupied when he was shot to the marks on the map indicating the ruins of the village back of the German lines. After this he went to his observation post with the map and carefully studied the village ruins through a glass.

Sniper Finally Located.

By reference to his map he established that the line he had drawn passed for purposes of his observation, through what was left of a roofless stone structure that had served the village women in days of peace as a conchity wash house. There they had gathered to scrub and pound their household clothing on the edge of a stone-lined pool. The pool was still full of water, covered with green scum. And there was water in the pool had been shown by photographs taken by our airplane observers.

"Heine," said the Lieutenant to himself, "is in that pool, probably up to his neck in water, with his ammunition on a dry shelf in front of him, sniping at us through a hole in the wall."

He called a runner and scribbled a message which he sent to the rear. In about 15 minutes a shell from an American 75 landed a little beyond the wash house. Another landed a little in front of it. A third struck it fair. Other shells landed in the same spot. After that no more bullets came from the sniper and the paper mache head and torso of "Jimmy Casey" was sent to battalion headquarters as Exhibit A in the report of how a sniper was located and silenced. "Jimmy Casey" is a product of the property room of the war.

QUIGLEY WANTS 50 FOOTBALL PLAYERS BEFORE SATURDAY

Billkins' Coach Now Has Squad of 30; Expects Many More Today.

FOELSCH JOINS PIKERS

Walter Siebert Injures Ankle; Nehr, Former Soldan Star, Also Reports.

Ernest C. Quigley, football mentor at St. Louis University, has been on the job officially but two days, yet the spirit of the Billkins is beginning to boil and with all due respect to former coaches on Grand avenue, it must be admitted that Quigley has stirred the "old life" as it seldom has been stirred before. And Quigley admits he hasn't gotten a fair start.

Thirty candidates reported for practice yesterday. That number represented just eight more than were out the previous day. The coach expects at least half a dozen more out today, and he says he will not be satisfied until he has 50 candidates working out under his direction.

Where's That Spirit?

"I don't believe I'd be content to have 50 men," Quigley said this morning. "I want a real squad. St. Louis University has the material and I want the boys to turn out. We're working for a winner and when I get through with the football work, I'm going out to earn up some of this college pep we hear so much about. This afternoon, I expect fully half a dozen new arrivals. Offhand, I think Gallagher, Dennis, Thornton, Helm and Finnegan will be among those who will report. Others are sure to follow. True, only 11 men can participate in a game at a time, but I want a reserve force fully as good as the team I have on the field.

"Of course, it's a little early to pick an eleven, but I have been very much impressed with the showing of Kotka at center, Weiss at end and Higgins at halfback. These men are certain of thorough trials at their respective positions and will stick unless some more capable are discovered.

Quigley plans to haul out the dummy this afternoon, which means the squad will be sent through a long tackling practice. Scrimmages very likely will be in order toward the close of the week and once started, will be made daily fixtures. Practice is scheduled this afternoon at 2.

Picker Squad Stripped.

Coach Rutherford's pickers were sent through a scrimmage yesterday afternoon, though the entire squad had refused the previous "shots" and had been vaccinated. Several of the boys complained with sore arms, Sauls reporting he could not lift his right arm. Elmer Herbert and Leo Stanley both reported they had slight fever, which is expected to disappear, however, in a couple of days.

Walter Siebert, former McKinley high star, who is out for quarterback, suffered a further injury to his already weak ankle and was forced to the sidelines. He will miss practice for a couple of days at least. Russell Deeds, also a former high school player, took his place at tackle in the signal practice, though his fractured wrist was still in a plaster cast. The veteran halfback star, Foelsch, reported for the first time yesterday, but did not get into a uniform. He will put on his toes today and will be a regular member of the squad tomorrow. This will give Rutherford a choice selection of backfield material. The coach now has Berger, Pottorff, Siebert, Griesedick, Salter, Hausladen, Foelsch and Nehr. The latter is another new arrival. He was a great player at Soldan in 1915-1916, as a quarterback and seems almost sure of a place in the backfield.

The game with the Detachment eleven, which was to have been played Saturday, has been canceled, it was announced this morning at Washington. Instead, Rutherford will send his entire squad through a practice game, selecting two elevens, with substitutes.

Will Play Aviators.

The first game of the season will be that of a week from Saturday, against an eleven of aviators from Scott Field. Many college stars are in the flyers' lineup and they are certain to give the pickers strong competition. Lieut. Dudley M. Steele is in charge of the aviators.

Coach Rutherford reiterated this morning that he would not use all the men available in the S. A. T. C. He is heartily opposed to the playing of post-graduates, a rule which was passed at the Missouri Valley Conference meeting at Columbia Saturday. Rutherford also is against playing elevens which use such men.

Troubles of Coach Cook.

Coach Cook is having a trying time in his effort to mold a machine at Soldan. At present he is out of the game for the remainder of the season, because of an injured shoulder. Herk Hann wants to enter Washington and while Malcolm Calhoun has a desire to join the navy, Louis Zellinger has applied for admission to an engine school, while center Harlowe has not reported for several days.

LOCAL GIRL SWIMMERS MAY COMPETE IN MEET

Vern Lacy, chairman of the Registration Committee of the Western District of the A. A. U., is at present trying to complete arrangements to take a team of five girl swimmers to Indianapolis for an indoor meet to be staged there next month. Tentative selections for the team are Grace Stewart, Irene Fortson, Ethel Fitzworth, Evelyn Riedy and Adeline Jarvis.

One of the features of the Indianapolis meet will be a relay race and for that reason Lacy is attempting to raise funds to take five girls.

Football News and Notes

Minnesota may lose two of its best players. Because Norman Kinsley, captain and only 1917 regular to return, registered for military service prior to Sept. 12, he may be eliminated from the eleven. Quarterback Lamp, who enlisted in the Medical Reserve Corps, also expects to be called very soon.

Fred W. Norton, reported killed in last week's casualty lists was a former Ohio State U. football star. He played football, besides football, in 1916 and also was tubular in 1917.

Mal. George W. Norton, commandant at the University of Arkansas, has sanctioned sports and progress is being made with the football team.

Georgia Tech vs. Penn.

A movement is under way to arrange a game between Georgia Tech and University of Pennsylvania. It probably will be staged in Philadelphia, Nov. 15, providing Tech can obtain permission of its commanding officer.

Purdue's football situation took on a rosy tinge with the encouragement of Mal. Ed Jackson, who has ordered "full steam ahead" in all lines of sport.

Gophers Cancel Game.

Minnesota has notified Indiana it will not be able to fill the engagement set for Indianapolis, Nov. 2. A substitute game likely will be provided for by Indiana.

Col. John Finley, military commandant at Columbia University, has refused to sanction sports, hence no football team will be placed on the field this fall.

Only Three Georgia Tech Veterans Back

Guyon, Fincher and Dowling Footballers Heisman Will Have to Build Team Around.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 2.—The 1918 football season locally will be officially ushered in next Saturday, when the Tech Yellow Jackets do battle with the Clemson Tigers. This is the first appearance of the Tigers in Atlanta in several seasons.

The game will introduce to Atlanta for the first time the new football machine that Coach Heisman is building out at Tech, and while it is not reasonable to expect that it will be anywhere near like the famous Golden Tornado of the past two seasons, it gives, from training camp observation, indications of developing into a representative eleven.

At the close of last season, it was thought that Big Six Carpenter would be the only veteran left, but the war has made inroads into the personnel of the team, with the result that only three old regulars and one first string substitute out of a squad of about 35.

Guyon May Be Captain.

In the backfield, Chief Joe Guyon is the sole veteran returned, but the chief is even heavier than last season, as fast as ever, and will probably be captain of this year's eleven, since a Everett Strupper, the captain-elect, is now a private in an infantry regiment at Camp Gordon.

Fincher and Dowling, of goal-kicking fame, at end, and Ham Dowling and Mathis, at guards will form a nucleus to build a splendid line around.

Just who will be Guyon's running mates in the backfield will hardly be determined until the November game, as the contesting for the other three berths is neck and neck among the new men.

At present, Perst, the Savannah High School star, is playing in Strupper's position, Allen, a Porter Military Academy star, and the best looking lad of the new backfield material, is running in Harlan's place, while Barron, a red-headed, fighting little fellow from the Fifth District A. and M. School, is operating at quarterback.

Adams and Wally Smith will push Barron and Perst for their places as regulars in the backfield, and there are some other new men that show some promise.

Line Should Be Strong.

The line gives evidence of being a splendid one, despite its greenness, but four men have left the school and gone into service even since football practice started, making another hole there. But to weld around Dowling, Fincher and Mathis, Coach Heisman has Shorty Doyle, Davis, Staton, Wright, Walcott, Baskin and Turner are showing up well.

Just how the Jackets will line up against Clemson is, of course, problematical, but as a guess, we would place it about as follows: Fincher, left end; Doyle, left tackle; Dowling, left guard; Wright, center; Mathis, right guard; Davis right tackle; Staton, right end; Barron, quarterback; Perst, left halfback; Guyon, right halfback; Allen, fullback.

ENTRIES TO MAXWELTON BENEFIT PROGRAM WILL BE READY ON FRIDAY

The complete list of entries to the various events on the card for Saturday at Maxwelton, will be announced Friday, according to Bill McCartney, who is promoting the event for the American Fund for French Wounded.

The society motor show is expected to be the feature event of the day.

In addition to this, trotting and racing races, mile races, tractor races, airplane flights and landings by Scout Field men, stock car races with local drivers and an auto polo game are on the cards. With reasonable weather, McCartney predicts a record attendance.

On Sunday, the second of the two days' event, the automobile races will be the benefit drivers, between the Bonfield and Burr Lunkin, two noted drivers, in a special match race.

POPULAR PRICES FOR PENITENTIARY BATTLE

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Municipal Baseball Association yesterday, it was decided to charge a general admission of 25 cents, with box seats 50 cents for the benefit drivers, between the Bonfield and Burr Lunkin, two noted drivers, in a special match race.

SCHOOLS IN COUNTY ORGANIZE CIRCUIT

Athletic League Is Formed to Control All Sports at Four of Institutions.

A county high school athletic league, which has been contemplated for some time, is now almost an accomplished fact. All that is lacking is the signatures of the representatives of the different county schools to the constitution and by-laws which have already been drawn up by the officials.

The object of the circuit is to control and make rulings for all branches of sport in which the schools are interested. However, any institution has the right to withdraw from the circuit at any time.

Schedules for the different teams will be drawn up by the league.

At present the league will handle only football, but later on will branch out to the other forms of athletics. Only four of the county institutions, Webster, Maplewood, Kirkwood and Clayton will be represented on the gridiron this year.

AMATEUR BOXING SHOW FOR THURSDAY IS OFF

The amateur boxing show of the War Camp Community Service, which was scheduled to be held at the Jefferson Barracks tomorrow night, has been called off because of the influenza quarantine at the Post at present. It probably will be another two weeks before a show is attempted for the benefit of the soldiers stationed at the Barracks.

500 FOOTBALLS TO BE SENT BOYS OVER THERE

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—William M. (Big Bill) Edwards, former Princeton gridiron star and collector of internal revenue for this district, announced yesterday that he was organizing a committee of football men from all parts of the country to supply 500 football suits for use by the American Expeditionary Forces.

HOWARD TO BOX MURPHY.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Tommy Murphy, the stockyards middleweight, and Johnny Howard of Bayonne, will meet in the near future before one of the New Jersey clubs. The West-cornet, who is plying his way upward through Eastern middleweight ranks, demonstrated that he is becoming a serious concern for the top-notchers.

HERMAN UNABLE TO BOX MURPHY IN FEATURE GO AT SOUTH BROADWAY A. C.

Pekin Kid Herman, the Peoria boxer, now a soldier at Jefferson Barracks, was unable to oppose Jimmy Murphy, the local boxer, in the scheduled feature bout at the South Broadway A. C. last night, because of the fact that he is denied all men at the Post, because of the influenza quarantine.

When it was found that Herman would be unable to go on, the South Broadway officials called off the show until a later date. It is probable that Herman and Murphy will meet then. Officials announced that a show would be staged within two weeks.

SHE stood and glared at him. And you mean to stand there and ask me to press your trousers?" she demanded. "Why, yes, my dear," responded Mr. Stubb. "Is that asking too much?" "I should say it is, John Henry Stubb. I'd have you to know that when you married me you did not marry a flatiron."

Quite Happy.

THROUGH the wild ways of her good-for-nothing husband, a hard-working charwoman had to remove to a little two-roomed cottage, where there was scarcely space to sneeze without shaking the ornaments from the mantelpiece. "It's hard lines for you to be brought down like this, after what you've been accustomed to," said a sympathetic neighbor. "I don't doubt you feel very miserable, Mrs. Jones."

ART OF CONCEALMENT OLD

Three of the greatest things used in modern warfare are wireless telegraphy, smokeless powder and camouflage," a British officer remarked at a reception at an American army post. "None of these was produced by this war, although it is commonly supposed that camouflage is new. Only the French were new, for the art of concealment is as old as time."
